PAOLO CASTELNUOVO

Since its inception, MiMa has taught us to visualize the future of endoscopic surgery of the sinuses and skull base, and to strive for excellence in everything that we do. EndoMiMa 2015 will keep navigating the frontiers of these fascinating surgeries. Come and join us!

PIETRO PALMA

MiMa Rhinoplasty 2015 has been designed to shake up conventional and dogmatic schemes in rhinoplasty, and encourage innovative thinking in nasal plastic surgery. Tailor-made, patient-centred rhinoplastic surgery remains paramount. You can't miss it!

LEADING THE WAY

Dear Friend, Dear Colleague,

we are delighted to invite you to be with us for the very special Expo Edition of Milano Masterclass (MiMa) to be held in Milan, March 20-24, 2015.

This mindblowing 8th edition of MiMa promises to be the not-to-be-missed event in 2015 in the field of endoscopic sinus/skull base surgery and rhinoplasty.

MiMa will feature world renowned speakers, unrivalled scientific programme, "One2watch" segment, video panels on controversies, blast surgiclip sessions, spirited discussions and networking with friends and colleagues from all around the globe.

The renewed charm of Milan in the year of Universal Expo (en.expo2015.org) will undoubtedly offer an unparalleled setting for this powerful meeting.

High RoMi (Return on Meeting investment) guaranteed!

We look forward to welcoming you in the year of Expo Milano 2015!
